Facets represent the df. of the spline modelling the effect of hours fasted.
Points in different color represent mdels in which the last fed weight is included with splines.
Only models where the VIF of the most suspect term was < 10 are presented.